WHAT a merrier Christmas you and yours could spend in the cheery surroundings of a cozily furnished apartment. How much more life would broaden out—happiness would certainly reign supreme. You can have it merely for the asking.

Hesitate nor mediate no longer, friend—your credit is good for everything that will give a cheery tone to that little home. No red tape—no fees—no interest charges—prices marked in plain figures. A small payment down and a little each month will buy what you need to make Christmas this year a merrier on than ever before.

Give Something In MAHOGANY

FOR mother, sister, sweetheart—or just simply for a very dear friend—give something useful in handsomely grained mahogany and win steadfast gratitude for your thoughtfulness. Mahogany endures!

For a "man friend" there are many trite suggestions also. And for children, too. Whatever you give in furniture let it be preferably in the "king of woods," mahogany.

Credit will help you out of that cage

YOU two who for lack of ready cash are striving to "get along" in a single room, are wasting the best part of life in the struggle "in a cage." It isn't living but just existing and how bored you both get in such cramped and cheerless quarters!

Why Stay "Cooped Up" in a Single Room?

By our pleasant, dignified, easy payment plan you can furnish three or four rooms complete and exactly as you want them. Life expands every way when you get out of that "cage"—why not break the bars that bind and let us help you to the broader and better existence?

Give A Lamp

CAN anything that you might give shed truer radiance of the Christmas spirit than a library lamp? It is the remembrance "par excellence" of all. Under its mellow influence the memory will never die.

So many beautiful examples confront you here that it would be impossible to choose and then say you had picked "the best."
